

Reminiscence and Life Story Work Certificate

Program Schedule – 2017 Cohort

(Note that the schedule for Module 3 will be adjusted to accommodate the annual conference of the Association of Personal Historians, which is probably going to be in late September in 2017)

Weeks run Wednesday 8:00 a.m. through the following Tuesday 11:00 PM

Dates	Description
March 22 – March 28	Orientation to On-line Learning and Desire2Learn Software
March 29 – May 23	Module 1 – Fundamentals of Reminiscence and Life Story Work – course opens 8:00 a.m. (central time) March 29.
Week of May 24-30	Students complete final assignments for Module 1
Week of May 31- June 6	Instructor completes review/assessment of final assignments
June 7 –August 1	Module 2 – Reminiscence and Life Review Practice and Application – course opens 8:00 a.m. June 7
After July 19 and before August 15	Preliminary description of proposed Capstone Practicum Project due to Capstone Coordinator for use in identifying potential mentors.
Week of August 2-8	Students complete final assignments for Module 2
Week of August 9-15	Instructor completes review/assessment of final assignments
August 16 – October 10	Module 3 – Developing a Reminiscence/Life Story Work professional practice – course opens 8:00 a.m. Aug 16
Week of October 11-17	Students complete final assignments for Module 3
Week of October 18-24	Instructor completes review/assessment of final assignments NOTE: dates may need to be adjusted for 2017 APH Conference
By October 18, 2016	Mentors for Capstone projects identified and recruited
November 1 – January 31, 2018	Module 4 - Capstone Projects (additional time has been added to allow for the many holidays in November & December; actual time will vary with student’s project)

Students who anticipate being away for vacations while taking these courses are advised to make prior arrangements with the instructors so they can stay current in the course.

Please contact Esther Gieschen 715.394.8529 or egiesche@uwsuper.edu with any questions.